FOREWORD

The Population Census Organisation issued its Bulletin No. 1 on the 29th July, 1981. That Bulletin contained provisional data on population and sex-ratio upto the level of administrative district. It also contained the population of twelve most populous cities of Pakistan.

In this Bulletin further breakdown of the already published data of the Province of Sind upto Sub-Division/Taluka level is given by sex and rural/urban distribution. Moreover, the population of urban areas i.e. Municipal Corporations, Municipal Committees, Town Committees and Cantonments have been shown in the respective Sub-Division/Taluka.

The total population of the Sind Province at the time of 1981 Census was 18.966 million. It constituted 22.63% of the population of Pakistan at that time as compared to 21.68% in 1972 Census. The population of this province has increased at an average annual growth rate of 3.52% as compared to the national average of 2.99%.

The population of this province since 1951 is given as under :—

Year	Population
1951	6,047,748
1961	8,367,065
1972	14,155,909
1981	18,966,000

The sex-ratio (males per 100 females) in 1972 was 115 which declined to 110 in 1981.

The population density has increased to 229 persons per kilometre in 1981 as compared to 183 persons per kilometre in 1972.

The urban population has increased from 40.45% in 1972 to 43.26% in 1981. The average annual growth rate of urban population during 1972–81 was 4.34% as compared to 5.22% during 1961–72. Karachi is the biggest city in the province where the population was 51.03 lakh in March, 1981 as compared to 35.15 lakh in September, 1972. The other cities with population of more than one lakh are Hyderabad, Sukkur, Mirpurkhas, Larkana and Nawabshah. We have followed the administrative criterion of determining urban areas, i.e. treating those areas as urban which has been declared to be Municipal Corporations, Municipal Committees, Town Committees by the Provincial Government and Cantonments.

However, some areas like Halani, Mirwah and Buhara which have urban features and population of more than 5,000 have, therefore, been left out from the count of urban areas because they have not been declared as Town Committees. If the population of these areas were to be added then the percentage of the urban population would be higher.

(Dr. Akhtar Hasan Khan)
